

Protocol for shadowing ski school lessons

BASI members are welcome to shadow BASS Morzine lessons under the conditions laid out in this protocol.

The purpose of these conditions is to ensure that the ski school's legal and operational requirements are met and that the process has real value for the BASI member shadowing the sessions.

We are pleased to give you the opportunity to shadow our instructors and support your development, remember that you are a trainee instructor and will be perceived to be a representative of BASS. As such, when joining our instructors on their lessons we want you to learn and enjoy yourself as much as possible but also ask you to respect the needs of our clients. You must adhere to the same code of conduct as our instructors and you must agree to the following conditions :

- You must be punctual, arriving on time for instructor meetings and the start of lessons
- You must be wearing clean and presentable ski attire when shadowing
- You must not smoke or being under the influence of alcohol whilst shadowing
- You must respect your position as a BASS trainee at all times
- You should arrive early to meet and introduce yourself to the instructor and for the instructor to introduce you to the group
- If you are asked to give feedback by a client, please refer them to the instructor
- Feel free to interact with clients but refrain from any technical conversation or input
- Please ski at the performance level of the group - don't show off. This is your opportunity to develop your core skiing skills
- You MUST NOT take part in any teaching outside the shadowing or training. It is ILLEGAL, you are not insured and it could result in arrest and €15,000 fines
- Under no circumstances must any instructor become personally involved with any client, either in or out of Snowsport School hours.
- You will be expected to arrive for shadowing AND training clean tidy and with alcohol free breath.

Please Note that you are a representative of BASS at all times and, as such, you must conduct yourself in a sober and responsible manner. Any references to be supplied to future employers will contain accurate representations of your appearance, commitment and behavior.
